IAAP® Comes to the Fraser Valley

Wednesday, October 21st, 2009

5:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Buffet Dinner (Cost: $28.00)

Guildford Golf and Country Club, 7929 152nd Street, Surrey, BC

Keynote Speaker

Her Worship Mayor Dianne Watts

Dianne Watts has been the Mayor of Surrey, BC's fastest growing city, since 2005. Her brand of civic leadership includes facilitating cooperation between all levels of government in order to build healthy, vibrant communities. Mayor Watts has focused on bringing people together and building consensus for new and innovative approaches to the challenges facing Surrey. She believes that local government should be non-partisan, independent and focus not on where the idea comes from, but on what ideas work best for our community.

Over the next ten years, approximately 70% of the all the growth in the Metro Vancouver region will occur in four cities: Abbotsford, Coquitlam, Langley and Surrey. By co-ordinating the adoption of the new Liveability Accord, Mayor Dianne Watts worked hard to bring these four high growth communities together to begin cooperating on the key initiatives related to reducing crime, improving road and public transit infrastructure, balancing growth and development with the preservation of green space, and re-defining the relationship between cities and senior levels of government.

Administrative Professionals

How Would You Benefit From IAAP®?

Excited about enhancing the success of career-minded administrative professionals by providing opportunities for growth through education, community building and leadership development, a group of dedicated members of the International Association of Administrative Professionals® (IAAP) have organized this Information Event to introduce IAAP to career-minded administrative professionals in the Fraser Valley.

If you are a career-minded administrative professional looking to network with your peers and attain professional growth through education, community building and leadership development, plan to attend this event.

IAAP Vancouver chapter members Linda Green and Kim Perry CPS/CAP will lead the presentation on the benefits of membership in IAAP.

Visit www.iaap-hq.org for more information on IAAP.
